

Barry Finclair – violin

Opera Orchestra and toured with both. Extremely active in the New York City recording studios, he played on literally thousands of film scores, musical theater recordings, jazz and pop.

Barry has performed with such artists as Itzhak Perlman, David Nadien, Emanuel Ax and Robert Levin.

At the age of 13, Barry Finclair was chosen by Leonard Bernstein to perform as soloist on The Young People's Concerts with the New York Philharmonic and nationally broadcast on CBS TV. He attended New York City's School of Performing Arts, the Juilliard School of Music, Mannes College of Music and the University of Southern California. He also studied with Jascha Heifetz, David Nadien, Dorothy DeLay, Ivan Galamian and Itzhak Perlman.

His awards and prizes include First Place in The Merriweather Post Competition after which he was invited to appear as soloist with the National Symphony Orchestra in Washington D.C. A former member of the New York Philharmonic, he also played with The Metropolitan