

Bruce Williamson, woodwinds

CD as a leader, "Big City Magic" (featuring Randy Brecker) on Timeless Records. Bruce is also on the Music Faculty at Bennington College, Vermont.

Bruce Williamson (sax, woodwinds,) has performed with a wide variety of jazz instrumentalists; Art Lande, Fred Hersch, Mark Isham, Benny Green, Jim Pepper, Paul McCandless, Toshiko Akiyoshi and Jack McDuff. He has also appeared with the American Ballet Theatre Orchestra, the NYC Metropolitan Opera Orchestra, Manhattan New Music Project, Partita Chamber Ensemble and Spit Orchestra (Bang On a Can Festival). He has worked with director Julie Taymor and composer Elliot Goldenthal on theater projects "Juan Darien" and "The Green Bird" and the films "Titus", "Frida" and "Across The Universe." He was recently a featured soloist (along with clarinetist Richard Stoltzman) with the Slovakian Radio Orchestra.

Bruce has received two NEA grants for Jazz Composition. He can be heard on dozens of recordings, including his debut